Endorsement of Application by Agency Chief Executive Officer

NIC will return as “incomplete” application forms that do not have the endorsement of the chief executive officer of the agency, as defined below.

- For jails. If the jail is under the sheriff, the sheriff must endorse the application. If not, the application must be endorsed by the chief executive officer of the local department of corrections.
- For prisons. The director or commissioner of the state department of corrections.
- For community corrections. The head of the agency, such as the chief probation officer, chairperson of the parole board, executive director of the agency, or director of the department of corrections, depending on the organizational structure of the agency.
- For employees of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Both the warden and the assistant director of human resource management at the central office.

Individuals from private organizations must submit with their application an endorsement letter from the chief executive officer (as defined above) of the public agency to which the private organization provides service. The endorsement letter must verify that the private organization is contractually or statutorily required to deliver services to the corrections agency making the endorsement.
