

ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE-INVOLVED FEMALES AND ORGANIZATIONS 2019 CONFERENCE

DECEMBER 8-11
ATLANTA, GA

Dignity: Voices of Strength and Transformation

About Us

The Association for Justice-Involved Females and Organizations, an American Correctional Association affiliate, addresses issues for women and girls involved in the criminal justice system.

About the Conference

The 18th Biennial Conference is presented by the Georgia Department of Corrections and the Alabama Department of Corrections. The AJFO conference focuses on trending topics relating to justice-involved women and provides networking opportunities for those working with female offenders. The 2019 conference will be held in mid-town Atlanta at the Georgia Tech Conference Center. During your visit take part in the many activities Atlanta has to offer!

Snacks
Beverages
Lunches
PROVIDED

REGISTRATION OPEN IN APRIL

WWW.AJFO.ORG

Contact Us

|| Samantha.Banks@doc.alabama.gov

||

334-353-4803

||

www.ajfo.org